Plan Selection (NDS)

College, Major and Degree: Confirm your non-degree applicant classification using the descriptions provided. Please click here to review all of the options available as a non-degree seeking student. You must review all of these options before you will be able to select a major/program as a non-degree seeking student. Select the ONE classification that most accurately describes you:

- If there is not a major selection for you, it is because your selection has its own specific major.
- Requirements may vary based on your selection/program.
- If your classification has a description below and is not in the drop down list of selections, it is not available online at this time. Please contact an Admissions representative at (520) 621-3237.

I have read and understand the options available to me as a non-degree seeking student.
You must check the box above indicating you have read and understand the options available!
